13. Pre-application Advice

As relevant to this application concerning the loft-conversion :

"I have no adverse comments to make on the proposal for the conversion of roof space subject to the reduction of the number of rooflights as illustrated in the subsequent details submitted. However further specific details should be submitted showing their exact size, materials and position within the existing roof to show that they lie flush within the roof plane. I advise that both planning permission and listed building consent be sought for the above proposals. The application for listed building consent should be accompanied by a Heritage Impact Assessment."
